

Easter Holiday Learning

Easter holiday will be going ahead as normal, despite the strange times we are living through, so teachers will not be setting daily lessons for the next two weeks. To keep your mind developing we would like to recommend the following website that contain some fantastic ideas for self-education and development. Let your imagination take you on an exciting holiday learning journey!

General Learning

Khan Academy – Free resources for children aged 2-18.

BBC Bitesize – Lots of free resources here with videos and quizzes, too.

Century Tech – English, maths and science resources for primary and secondary students.

BBC Teach podcasts for ages 3 and up.

GCSE podcasts collected for you on a range of subjects.

Learn@Home, a Youtube website with learning resources and content for families.

Project Explore, Explore the world with videos capturing activity all over the planet with

Art Learning

Tate Gallery has a 360-degree virtual tour online.

The National Gallery virtual tours.

Computing Learning

Code.org – anyone can learn to code.

Minecraft: The Education Edition – these resources all have an educational purpose.

English Learning

Globe Theatre Virtual Tour - take a 360 visit to Shakespeare's Theatre

Audible Stories - has made all of its classic children's stories free.

Geography and Biology Learning

Natural History Museum has free virtual tours.

Explore, look at nature all around the world.

History Learning

The British Museum has made its online collections free to the public.

History Hit TV a subscription channel with free content and a free trial

Language learning

Duolingo – A free app for your phone for students to work on their language skills, or try a new language.

Memrise – Learn language through games and video clips on this online app.

Music Learning

Prodigies Music. for music lovers, there is a 21-day free trial to learn an instrument.

Quaver Music has free school closure activities for students learning at home.

PE Learning

Joe Wicks – aka The Body Coach – is running PP lessons for all ages.

Science learning

NASA Kids - learn all about the universe we live in by viewing these online videos.

Science experiments from Colorado University.

Physics demonstrations for students of all ages.